GUEST EXPERIENCE

CLICK HERE TO SERVE

GREETER

Greeters help create a welcoming first step for everyone who arrives at CCC. You offer a friendly hello, provide simple direction when needed, and help people feel comfortable as soon as they walk in. If you enjoy meeting new people and appreciate the chance to brighten someone's visit, greeting could be a great place for you to help people feel at home from the moment they arrive.

This role serves on: Thursdays and Sundays

Time commitment: 1-2 times per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

Relational

Leadership

USHER

Ushers help services run smoothly by greeting guests as they enter the venue, assisting with seating, and supporting communion. If you enjoy being a steady and friendly presence, serving as an usher could be a great place for you to help people engage fully in worship.

This role serves on: Thursdays and Sundays

Time commitment: 1-2 times per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

Relational

Leadership

PARKING TEAM

Parking Team volunteers create a warm first impression by directing cars, greeting guests with energy, and helping people feel comfortable before they even step inside. If you enjoy being active and bringing enthusiasm to your service, the parking team could be a great place for you to help guests feel welcomed from the moment they arrive.

This role serves on: Sundays

Time commitment: 1–2 times per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

Relational

Leadership

CAFÉ – COFFEE BREWING & REFILL

Café volunteers keep hospitality flowing by brewing coffee, refreshing supplies, and maintaining clean and inviting beverage stations. If you enjoy simple hands-on tasks that support others in meaningful ways, serving with the café team could be a great place for you to help people feel cared for throughout their visit.

This role serves on: Thursdays and Sundays

Time commitment: 1–2 times per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

Relational

Leadership

RECEPTION FILL-IN

Reception volunteers help the church run smoothly during the week by greeting guests, answering phones, and offering helpful direction. If you enjoy welcoming people and keeping things organized, the reception role could be a great place for you to make visitors feel supported throughout the week.

This role serves on: Flexible weekdays as needed

Time commitment: As needed or 1–2 times per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

Relational

Leadership

KIDS

BIRTH-TODDLER VOLUNTEERS

Birth-Toddler volunteers help create a warm, safe, and loving environment for our very youngest kids. You may play with little ones, provide snacks or water, assist with diaper changes, or help toddlers engage during a simple lesson. If you enjoy caring for babies and toddlers and want to help make church a peaceful place for families, this role could be a great place for you to support our littlest attenders with gentleness and joy.

This role serves on: Thursdays and Sundays

Time commitment: 1-2 times per month

Training required: Background check; no prior experience required (must be 16 or older to serve in Nursery)

Relational

Leadership

PREK- KINDERGARTEN VOLUNTEERS

PreK- Kindergarten volunteers help kids learn about Jesus through simple lessons, hands-on activities, and fun classroom routines. You might assist during large group teaching or help reinforce the lesson in a smaller group setting. If you enjoy helping young kids feel known, loved, and ready to learn, this role could be a great place for you to help spark early faith moments.

This role serves on: Thursdays and Sundays

Time commitment: 1-2 times per month

Training required: Background check; no prior experience required

Relational

Leadership

1ST-4TH GRADE VOLUNTEERS

1st–4th Grade volunteers help kids experience Jesus through an energetic mix of play, teaching, and small group discussion. You'll help guide conversations, support teaching moments, and encourage kids as they grow in understanding. If you enjoy helping kids learn in a fun and active environment, this role could be a great place for you to help them build meaningful foundations of faith.

This role serves on: Thursdays and Sundays

Time commitment: 1–2 times per month

Training required: Background check; no prior experience required

Relational

Leadership

5TH GRADE VOLUNTEERS

5th Grade volunteers walk with students who are ready for deeper conversations and more intentional engagement. You help guide discussions, support the lesson, and build relationships that help faith come alive in this unique age group. If you enjoy connecting with older kids and encouraging them as they grow, this role could be a great place for you to help shape a pivotal season of their faith journey.

This role serves on: Sundays

Time commitment: 1–2 times per month

Training required: Background check; no prior experience required

Relational

Leadership

RESOURCE PREP VOLUNTEERS

Resource Prep volunteers support Kids Ministry during the week by restocking supplies, preparing crafts, organizing rooms, disinfecting baby toys, doing laundry, and helping classrooms stay ready for weekend services. If you enjoy behind-the-scenes tasks that make ministry smooth and welcoming, this role could be a great place for you to help set kids up for a great experience.

This role serves on: Flexible weekdays (Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday)

Time commitment: Weekly, 1 hour

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

WORSHIP

CHOIR MEMBER

Choir Members help lead our congregation in worship by adding richness and depth to each service. You'll rehearse and learn music together, and join the West service one weekend each month from August to May. If you enjoy singing with others and want to contribute to worship in a meaningful way, serving in the choir could be a great place for you to help shape moments that draw people closer to Jesus.

This role serves on: Thursdays and Sundays

Time commitment: Once per month, plus a weekly rehearsal

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

Relational

Leadership

WORSHIP BAND MEMBER

Worship Band Members help lead musical worship by serving as vocalists or instrumentalists with a high level of musical skill. After auditioning, you'll rehearse during Thursday soundcheck and serve at all service times for the weekends you're scheduled. If you love using your musical gifts to help people connect with God, serving on the worship band could be a great place for you to support worship in a powerful way.

This role serves on: Thursdays and Sundays

Time commitment: As scheduled, typically once per month

Training required: Audition required; orientation provided after acceptance

Relational

Leadership

PRODUCTION

CAMERA OPERATOR

Camera Operators help capture clear and engaging video for both in-room and online worship. You'll follow direction from the Video Director, frame important moments, and support a distraction-free worship experience. If you enjoy technology and working on a supportive team behind-the-scenes, operating a camera could be a great place for you to help people stay connected to what matters most in every service.

This role serves on: Thursdays and/or Sundays

Time commitment: Typically once per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

Relational

Leadership

CG OPERATOR (COMPUTER GRAPHICS)

CG Operators control the lyrics and slide content that appear on screens during worship services. You'll ensure cues are accurate and on-time for both the room and livestream.

If you enjoy detail-oriented tasks and supporting worship from behind-the-scenes, serving as a CG Operator could be a great place for you to help people engage without distraction.

This role serves on: Thursdays and/or Sundays

Time commitment: Typically once per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

COMMUNICATIONS

PHOTOGRAPHER

Photographers help capture meaningful moments from services, ministries, and events so our church family can see and celebrate what God is doing. You'll take photos that help tell the story of CCC and support communication across digital and print platforms. If you have a creative eye and enjoy documenting real moments, and a willingness and aptitude to learn technical skills (equipment), serving as a photographer could be a great fit for you! (Equipment will be provided as needed.)

This role serves on: Thursdays and Sundays, plus special events as scheduled

Time commitment: Typically, once per month or as needed for events (usually 1-2 hours at a time)

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided with follow-up as needed.

Relational

Leadership

SOCIAL MEDIA CAPTURE

Social Media Capture volunteers gather real-time content—photos, short videos, and stories—that help to share how God is working through CCC. You'll capture authentic moments during services or events and contribute to online engagement throughout the week. If you are observant, have an eye for capturing special moments, and enjoy storytelling, this role could be a great place for you to help share what's happening in the life of our church.

Equipment will be provided (Social Media Phone) or, if you have an iPhone 13 or newer, you can use your own phone.

This role serves on: Thursdays and Sundays, plus events as scheduled

Time commitment: Typically once per month (1-2 hours at a time).

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

KIDS SPORTS PROGRAMS — COACH OR REFEREE

Coaches and Referees support kids by creating a fun, structured environment that encourages confidence, teamwork, and sportsmanship. All planning and curriculum are provided, so you can focus on building relationships and helping kids grow. If you enjoy sports and mentoring children in simple, meaningful ways, this role could be a great place for you to make a positive impact throughout a sports season.

This role serves on: As scheduled for sports seasons and events

Time commitment: Seasonal (6–8 week commitment depending on sport)

Training required: Background check; no experience required, a short training session is provided

Relational

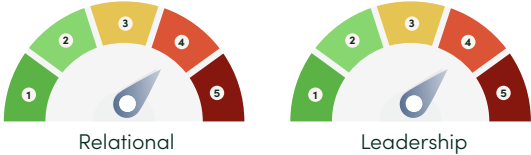

Leadership

SPORTS PROGRAM LEADER

Each of our sports programs are supported by leaders who are passionate about the sport they serve in. Sports Program Leaders may lead fitness classes and organize basketball, volleyball, pickleball, soccer, flag football, and other sports throughout the year. They help ensure every session runs smoothly, safely, and with excellence. Leaders set the tone by creating a fun and welcoming environment. They are intentional about noticing and connecting with first-timers and helping them feel comfortable. Program Leaders also share what else is happening at CCC so participants can take meaningful next steps.

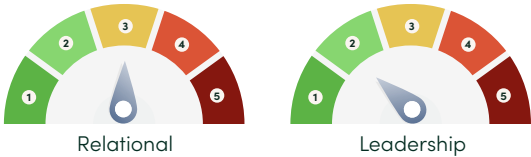

This role serves on: As scheduled for sports seasons and events
Time commitment: Seasonal (6-8 week commitment depending on sport)
Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

EVENT SET-UP & SUPPORT

Event Set-Up & Support volunteers help prepare, host, and reset Sports Ministry events throughout the year, everything from gym tournaments and field events to 5Ks and other athletic gatherings. You might set up equipment, prepare supplies, assist with registration, support hospitality needs, manage water or aid stations, or help with cleanup and teardown after the event.

This role serves on: As scheduled for events

MEMBER CARE

PRAYER TEAM — BEFORE WEEKEND SERVICES

Prayer Team volunteers gather before services to pray over the people, ministries, and moments that will take place throughout the weekend. You'll join a small group in lifting up the church, asking God to work through every part of the service. If you enjoy praying for others and want to support the church in a powerful, behind-the-scenes way, this role could be a great place for you to help prepare hearts through prayer.

This role serves on Sundays from 10:15-10:30am in Room 17

Time commitment: Twice per month

Training required: No prior experience; you are welcome to show up!

Relational

Leadership

PRAYER TEAM — AFTER WEEKEND SERVICES

After each service, Prayer Team volunteers are available at the front of the room to pray with individuals who come forward with needs or requests. You'll offer compassion, listen well, and pray with confidence as you support people in meaningful moments. If you love Jesus, care deeply for others, and enjoy praying with people, this role could be a great place for you to help others encounter God in just a few minutes of meaningful connection.

This role serves on: Thursdays and Sundays

Time commitment: Twice per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training is required before serving.

YOUNG ADULTS

WELCOME TEAM

Welcome Team volunteers help set the tone for Thursday nights by greeting young adults warmly, helping them check in, and making the environment feel inviting. You'll connect with people as they enter East Hall and help create a friendly space where new and returning attendees feel at home. If you enjoy meeting people and offering simple hospitality, this role could be a great place for you to help shape someone's first experience in Young Adults.

This role serves on: Thursdays

Time commitment: Twice per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

Relational

Leadership

CONNECT TEAM

Connect Team volunteers help new attendees feel welcomed, informed, and connected during their first visit. You'll engage with newcomers, walk them through the "New Here" process, introduce them to others, and follow up when appropriate. If you enjoy relational conversations and helping people find belonging quickly, this role could be a great place for you to help new young adults feel at home right away.

This role serves on: Thursdays

Time commitment: Twice per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

Relational

Leadership

ROOM RESET TEAM

Room Reset Team volunteers help return East Hall to its weekday layout after Young Adults gathers. You'll put away chairs, tidy the room, and reset equipment so the space is ready for the next day. If you enjoy behind-the-scenes serving and like helping leaders stay free to connect with young adults after the night ends, this role could be a great place for you to support the ministry in a simple, meaningful way.

This role serves on: Thursdays

Time commitment: Twice per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

Relational

Leadership

YOUNG ADULTS MENTOR

Young Adult Mentors support and encourage young adults as they navigate significant life seasons. You'll meet in person monthly, check in weekly by text or call, and pray regularly for the person you're paired with. If you enjoy coming alongside others and offering wisdom, encouragement, and spiritual support, this role could be a great place for you to help a young adult grow in faith and confidence.

This role serves on: Flexible monthly schedule

Time commitment: Monthly in-person meeting + weekly check-ins

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided

Relational

Leadership

EVENT TEAM

Event Team volunteers help prepare, set up, tear down, and support Young Adult events that happen throughout the year. You might assist during Thursday gatherings or at special events designed to help young adults connect with God and each other. If you enjoy practical tasks and working on a team, this role could be a great place for you to help make meaningful experiences possible.

This role serves on: Thursdays and scheduled events

Time commitment: 1–2 times per month

Training required: No prior experience; a short training session is provided
